Baby Bottle Campaign 2022

Upper Long Cane Presbyterian Church's Mission and Service Committees are helping with a campaign that is underway at the Crossroads Pregnancy Center located on Grace Street in Greenwood, S.C. The campaign entitled, "Baby Bottle Campaign" provides funds for counseling classes, ultrasounds, free pregnancy tests, Bible studies, and material assistance such as diapers and clothing. We are proud to support this outreach ministry, vital for God's work to those in need in six surrounding counties.

Bottle banks will be available at every service in March for your donation of loose change. Also, we have a collection box for infant items to show our love and support of new mothers and their babies.

This outreach could change lives in Abbeville so join us in making this project successful. Your monetary donations, material support, and prayers are greatly appreciated. www.crossroadspregnancycenter.org

For our Souper Bowl Special Offering, Upper Long Cane collected $723 for Meals on Wheels of Piedmont Agency on Aging in Greenwood.

Registration is Open!

MISSIONARIES IN MANSE

You may see a few new faces near the church in the coming months. Locals Elijah Norris, his wife Elizabeth, and their 3 children will be temporarily residing in the manse. The family will soon become full time missionaries in Ecuador and are in the midst of their relocation. The Session was thrilled to be able to facilitate God's work in providing this support to the family. Please make them feel welcome at ULPC!
